Steps to Heart Coherence

1. Focus on Heart
2. Breathe From Heart
3. Feel from Heart

Majority of population around the globe is continuously living under the influence of stress and performing at only 5% - 15% of their potential. Over 80% of that population displays PHYSICAL symptoms of stress which impacts individual, team and corporate performance.

Everyday life comes with everyday stressors. Stress Response can be triggered from environment, life changes, daily stresses and workplace. These stressors knock the brain and body out of balance which affects your Finances, Health, and Relationships.

Learning to not only manage your stress but also to MANAGE YOURSELF is crucial to a healthy, joyful and prosperous life.
